

Urban Native Youth Association

School Support Program

YOUNG SPIRITS SUMMER PROGRAM 2010

A FREE day camp program for Aboriginal, Métis, Inuit, Native Students entering grade 7 or 8 from Vancouver School District

Free Day Camp Program (our Tenth Year), includes lunch, no cost for recreation or cultural activities. Our program will have recreation, cultural, sports, and educational workshops programming. Daily mini workshops are on a variety of life skill topics. We have daily morning talking circles and closing talking circle at the end of the day. At times we will practice cultural protocols: Talking circle, smudging, ceremonies that might be relevant to our group

When: August 3 – 26, 2010. Days & Time: 10:00 – 4:00 pm, Monday to Thursday

For more information contact: UNYA School Support Program schoolsupport@unya.bc.ca or schoolsupport2@unya.bc.ca

Chuck Lafferty or Wynne Pruden

You can request a registration form by phone, by email or come by the UNYA main office reception to complete the intake registration. Once we receive the completed part (1) of the registration, we review the document then contact the caregiver and student to inform if accepted in the YSSP camp.

YSSP will be hosted at Britannia Secondary School, location is given by phone to each applicant

UNYA main office: 1618 Hastings Street Vancouver, open Monday to Friday: 9am to 5pm (closed during lunch) Main office phone: 604-254-7732 Fax: 604-254-7811.

School Support Program can be reached at: Extension 5329

Workshops are fun, interactive, informative, and easy to participate in, topics include coming of age, success in school, A & D Prevention, Art Media Project, etc. Recreation includes Swimming Pools, interactive games at beaches or parks, variety of sports and rec. Cultural programming includes, visits from elders, visiting cultural sites, smudging, singing, Medicine Wheel Teachings, and more

Please note that part (1) of the registration form is on the back of this flyer